

THE BRAMPTON INDIE ARTS FESTIVAL

February 2007

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

The Pumpkin Pie Corporation is currently taking submissions for the 7th Annual Brampton Indie Arts Festival. Since 1999, this festival has been known for its diverse programming of eclectic arts at the Heritage Theatre in downtown Brampton. The Brampton Indie Arts Festival will be held in the first week of February 2007. In previous years, The Brampton Indie Arts Festival has attracted such artists as Hayden, Ron Sexsmith, Cuff the Duke, John Oswald, Bob Wiseman, Kid in the Hall Scott Thompson, Nash the Slash, The Nihilist Spasm Band, John Boyle, Lee Demarbre and more...In 2007 we are proud to present DEVO's Mark Mothersbaugh as a featured visual artist.

Writers, musicians, filmmakers, dancers, painters, photographers, puppeteers, spoken word artists, sculptors and ALL others are welcome to submit their work for consideration. All artists that are accepted to this festival will be paid applicable CARFAC and SOCAN rates.

To apply, please mail us a completed application form. Please include a copy of the work you would like to be considered for this festival. Please do not send us your original copies, as submissions will not be returned.

The submission deadline is 5PM on OCTOBER 31st, 2007. Packages must be post-marked no later than the submission deadline. Incomplete or late entries will not be considered. There is a $10 (CDN) non-refundable submission fee, in the form of a cheque, made payable to The City of Brampton.
